Report on Begum Rokeya Day celebration:

Begum Rokeya Sakhwat Hossain's birth anniversary is celebrated annually in 9th December as Begum Rokeya Day. This is to honor her pioneer work in women's education and their rights. She was a feminist writer and activist who challenged the gender oppression in the society. She established several schools to the uplift of the girl child. Also through her writings she visualized their development.

On 9th December, 2025 our college celebrated the Begum Rokeya Day. On that day department of History along with IQAC of Panchur College memorized day. Our department gave lectures on the works of Begum Rokeya. The two speakers were belongs to the department of History. Ms. Sarmistha Maiti emphasizes the early life of Begum Rokeya and the struggle she faced in this period. She also highlights Rokeya's personal life where she used to get inspiration of her family members, especially from her elder brothers. Mr. Jagabandhu Sardar gave lecture about the the achievements of Rokeya. He along with PPT described the several writings and social works.

The students mainly the girl students were very much impressed by the discussion. There was also interactive session where they questioned with social problem related issues. The outcome was very much fruitful. The entire program has been celebrated in the seminar room of Panchur College which is named as "Begum Rokeya Sammilan Kaksha."
