COMPLIANCE REPORT ON "HAR GHAR TIRANGA"

This is to inform you that vide Government Order No. 2091 (75)/Secy/ICA/2026 dated 24.07.2026, under the Govt. of India and Govt. of West Bengal's "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign, Panchur College organised a week long programme on the occasion of the 80th Independence Day of India from the 9th of August, 2026, to the 17th of August, 2026. Starting from the 9th of August, 2026, IQAC, Panchur College in collaboration with the NSS and the Cultural Committee held a variety of educational, cultural and awareness programmes that showcased the history of the National Movement of India as well as ensured that feelings of pride and patriotism may be reinstated within the hearts of our students. All programmes began with the singing of Vande Mataram and concluded with a chorus of the National Anthem.

The following is a brief account of the various programmes that were observed during the various days of the week:

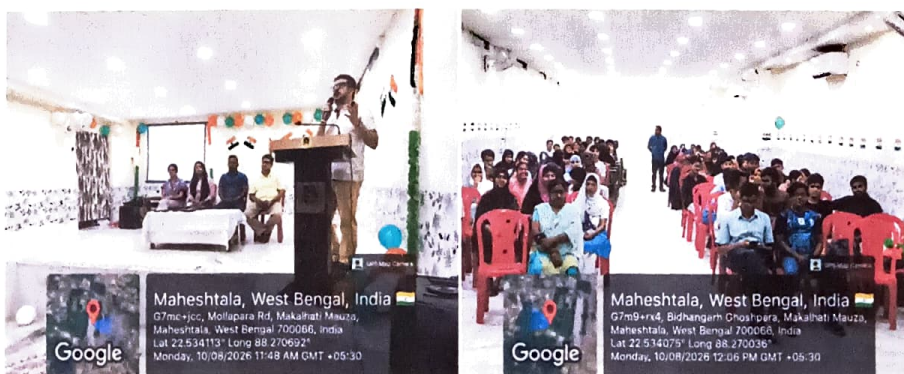

- 09.08.2026 – Panchur College hosted a lecture by Sarmistha Maiti, Associate Professor, Department of History, Panchur College, entitled "The Quit India Movement: The Final Step Towards our Freedom."
- 10.08.2026 – A Quiz Competition was held on India and her National Movement. It was immensely enjoyed by our students.
- 11.08.2026 – An awareness programme as organised on "The Great India: Unity in Diversity," which was delivered by Dr. Tarun Kanti Halder, Assistant Professor and Head of the Department, Department of English, Panchur College.
- 12.08.2026 – A foot rally was organised by our college and there was a huge participation among the students and staff who marched through the Panchur area singing Vande Mataram.
- 13.08.2026 – A diverse cultural programme was held on the theme of Independence with students singing, dancing, speeches on the above-mentioned theme.
- 14.08.2026 – A painting and rangoli completion on the theme of the 80th Independence Day was held within the premises of the college.

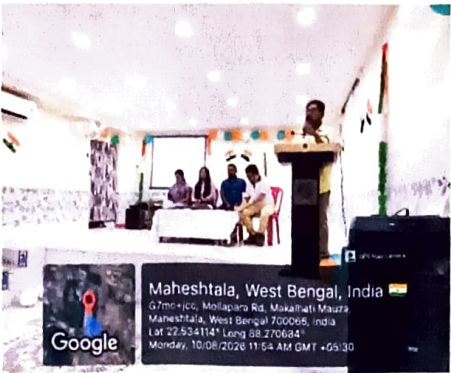

- 15.08.2026 – The morning of our 80th Independence Day was marked by the hoisting of the National Flag from within the college premises followed by a seminar on the Flag Code presented by Satyabrata Karmakar, SACT and Head of the Department, Department of Geography, Panchur College.
- 16.08.2026 – Panchur College organised an essay writing completion on the theme of independence among the students on this day.
- 17.08.2026 – A patriotic film show was organised for the students in the college auditorium.
